SAPC
STUDENT AFFAIRS PLACEMENT CONFERENCE

FAQ for Candidates

How can I find out which institutions will be present at SAPC (Student Affairs Placement Conference)?

University attendees and other resources can be found on our website here: www.saplacementconference.com/participating-institutions

What meals will be provided for me when I register?

SAPC's reception on February 10 at 5:30 will have food, but all other meals are the responsibility of the candidate. We will have snacks provided in the candidate work room.

Where can I find overnight accommodations?

Hotel accommodations can be found on our website: https://www.saplacementconference.com/plan-your-visit

What is the cost of registration?

We want any candidate interested in interviewing in-person with participating universities to have the opportunity without cost as a barrier, which is why there is no cost to candidates to participate in SAPC.

What if I am unable to attend in person? Can I still interview with these schools virtually?

SAPC was created to provide an in-person experience to candidates and employers. We will not be offering a virtual component during this conference. Employers may still be offering virtual interviews outside of this conference.

What can I expect during the reception?

The reception is a time for candidates and employers to get to know one another in an informal setting. Expect to mix and mingle with different candidates and employers during this time.

Is there an online system I will need to utilize to know my interview schedule and to communicate with employers?

Employers will be utilizing their own systems to schedule interviews with candidates. Be prepared to use a system or software that works best to keep track of your own personal schedule.

What if I register, but am no longer able to attend?

We ask that you contact us at saplacementconference@gmail.com immediately and contact any employers that you have a scheduled interviews with directly to make proper accommodations. For assistance with logistics and schedules for our employers, we ask for notification of cancellations by February 1st.
